Dispute Over Storage Charges

At the Hancock County Board Supervisors meeting Monday morning, June 23, the law carried by almost two to one. The unofficial count was 1,073 for and 563 against. Observers termed the vote as "very light" in most precincts.

Attorney Ladner stated the board had been sent other bills in the past, but not until June 1969 was a county warrant issued, this being only in the amount of $71.25 - which was out of the 5 Road and Bridge Maintenance Fund. Ladner appeared before the board to ask for the entire money for the complete bill.

According to Ladner, boat Supervisor Russell Elliott had full knowledge of the storage of such equipment. At the meeting Russell Elliott stated that "there was more to it, than the bill," Supervisor Dolph stated that it (meaning records) of this towing and storage of equipment was not in the minutes of the board.

In conclusion, the board agreed not to pay the bill until an opinion was received from the State Attorney General's office.

Supervisor Charles Russ III made a motion for a letter to be sent to the Attorney General, for an opinion, supervisor Joe Devas seconded the motion.

OUTRIGGER I sits at dock in Biloxi being outfitted for trawling operations out of Hancock County Port and Harbor project at Mulatto Bayou. Trawler is first of its type in America. (Port and Harbor Commission photograph).

City Broke Bank Funds Frozen Outrigger I Soon To Arrive At Port

Outrigger I, a brand new concept of fishing trawler, is a 38-foot vessel.

Now outfitting at McElroy Machine and Manufacturing Co., Inc.'s wharf in Biloxi, the boat is owned by Outriggers, Inc. of Bay St. Louis.

She is the first craft of her size to be built out of fiberglass and her design and hull form are new innovations to the industry. Two purchasers have contracted for the entire factory output of the craft for the foreseeable future. One customer is the Brazilian government, and the other, Outriggers, Inc.

Built by the Hatters Yacht Division of North American Rockwell, High Point, North Carolina, the vessel is 38 feet and nine inches overall, with a 68 foot waterline length, has a beam of 21 foot 11 inches, and draft of nine feet.

Powered by a Caterpillar 365 horse power diesel main engine, she swings a 72.46 pitch wheel through 6.1 Twin Disc reduction gears. Carrying 10,000 gallons of diesel fuel, she has a five week cruising capability.

To be skippered by John Bosarge of Bayou LaBatre, Ala., she was delivered by Richard McChinnis of the Hatters concern.

Freezing units are Westinghouse Thermo Kings driven by Mercedes Benz D.180 engines, with auxiliary lighting and electric power being supplied by a Lister Diesel driven 38 volt generator.

Hold capacity is 40-tons and winching is by McElroy Machine. Hydraulics are by J. Thomas-Hall of Hydraulic Enterprises, Inc. Waveland.

Fresh water capacity is 2,000 gallons. Air conditioned accommodations are provided for four crew members, in two cabins, and a captain, in single quarters. A pilot bunk is provided in the wheelhouse.

Other interesting items carried for navigational or other aid include, Mollory Control panel on bridge; Danforth constellation in Kelvin White compass; Simrad 300 fathom depth finder; Loran DX navigator; Pearce Simpson 23 channel Sea B radio; CH 26, Kaar, ship/shore side band radio; Bendix automatic pilot; Morse remote control; and Wagner steering gear.

Outriggers, Inc., is the first industry to locate in the new Hancock County Port and Harbor complex at Mulatto Bayou.

SELF-IMPROVEMENT CLASS
The Bay-Waveland Junior Auxiliary has approximately 20 girls enrolled in its Self-Improvement Class. Mrs. John Hansell and Mrs. James Ford are in charge of this class for girls 12 - 16 years old. Mrs. Hansell has a diploma from Humboldt Airline School, Minneapolis, Minnesota, and Mrs. Ford is a graduate of the Grace Downs School of Modeling in New York. The class features Hair and Skin Care; Exercises, and Modeling.

The City of Bay St. Louis, was loser in the suit brought by Huey P. Johnston, who was awarded damages of $20,000.00 in April of this year. No payment to Johnston has been made and when payment was requested, the City replied, that no funds were available.

Execution of Judgment was ordered by the Circuit Court, which was served on the City by Sheriff Fred Curren, Tuesday. The Execution of Judgment provides for the payment of the seizure of the City's Real and Personal property.

Wednesday, Sheriff Curren served two Writs of Garnishment, which tie up the City's funds in the Merchants and Gulf National banks.

Liability insurance carried by the City was only in the amount of $6,000.00. At present time the Echo has a report that the insurance company has sent a check in excess of $6,000.00.

Blackledge

State's Economy Changing Reports Miss. R&D Center

A new report by the Mississippi Research and Development Center shows the State's economy is changing rapidly and several problems must be solved if economic goals are to be reached by the turn of the century.

The report, "Mississippi's Changing Economy," was announced today by Gov. John Bell Williams, as chairman of the Mississippi Research and Development Council.

The Governor termed the report "a valuable new economic analysis," and said it outlined statistics and comments on the rapid changes which have taken place in recent years and which must be solved if the State's economic goals are to be reached by the year 2000.

The study showed key changes which have occurred between 1950 and 1967, the period covered by the study, include:

Manufacturing has become Mississippi's largest income producer with the federal government second, property come third and agriculture fourth.

Mississippi added 243,800 agricultural jobs during the period, but lost 190,000 agricultural jobs.

The net increase of 43,800 during the period was far below the number needed to provide jobs for Mississippi's high school and college graduates and other persons entering the work force. As a result, a relatively high rate of out-migration, particularly of the State's best educated young people, is continuing.

Agriculture now employs only 14.6 per cent of those employed in Mississippi as compared with 42.1 per cent in 1950.

Although Mississippi has a manufacturing base, these increases are mostly in apparel, furniture, food, and other consumer goods.

Unfortunately, in terms of the State's income goal, all these are relatively low-paying industries. Some gains have been made in primary and secondary metals and machinery, but these require higher skills and more investment.

Neither of these, however, kept up with gains in other areas as a whole.

The State's income goal is to have the State in the top 10 of the nation in per capita income by the year 2000.

Some bills were ordered paid and the Town Attorney read his replies to several written complaints.

The highway sign discussed at the last meeting was not discussed or any action taken.

A new police car has been delivered and is being driven by Officer J. L. Smith.

The State's income goal is to have the State in the top 10 of the nation in per capita income by the year 2000.

Park Director
Visits Hancock

The Jackson Ridge park project offers a "golden opportunity to the people of Hancock County."

These were the words of Spencer E. (Buddy) Medlin, director, Mississippi Park System, on Friday, when he paid a visit to the site.

Others in the Jackson group were Lionel Williams, chief, planning division, and Jeanne Mason, Bureau of Outdoor Recreation Administration.

Representing the county in the preliminary inspection were Russell Elliott, president, Hancock County Board of Supervisors; Walter James Phillips, state representative; Jack Diferent, director, Gulf Regional Planning Commission; Paul Vegas, engineering design, General Electric Co.; and Charles Hill, director, Hancock County Port and Harbor Commission.

Medlin, who is also state liaison chief for the Bureau of Outdoor Recreation, said the Jackson Ridge site has outstanding features.

He said his department had already earmarked initial project matching funds for the county and that he would be back within a week to "firm up" plans and development sequences.

The parks director is to undertake a road trip of all planned "in county" park and recreational area developments to gain first hand knowledge of county potentials.

Of his relationship with county officials so far, Medlin said he was very impressed with the spirit of cooperation displayed and that he was looking forward to "a really pleasant relationship in the future."

The Hancock County Board of Supervisors is developing a park system in Hancock County, Mississippi, which will include the Jackson Ridge park project.

MR. AND MRS. LAVELLE G. GRIFFIN

Weston-Griffin United In Formal Ceremony

Wedding vows were recited at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon, June 22, by Miss Katherine Elizabeth Weston of Pass Christian and Lavelle Gideon Griffin of Westwego, La.

Baskets of white gladioli, majestic dahlias, chrysanthemums and potted fern flanked the altar of Our Lady of Lourdes Catholic Church in Pass Christian for the double ring ceremony by Rev. Father Mitchell Gilbride. Jeffrey Wittman, cousin of the bride, and Hank Schmidt served as altar boys.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Weston of Rt. 2, Pass Christian, and the groom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. John L. Griffin, Bay St. Louis.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal length gown of white crystalline designed and made by her mother. The A-line skirt was fashioned at the hem with a wide border of French Alencon lace heavily embroidered with pearls ending in a pyramid on the skirt front. The lace motifs were repeated on the bodice, short sleeves, high V-neckline, train, floor-length veil of French illusion was held by a headpiece of fresh fleur d'amour, stephanotis, yellow roses and baby breath. A cascade bouquet of flowers matching her headpiece completed her ensemble.

Miss Lola Weston attended her sister as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Sharon Griffin of New Orleans, sister of the groom; Miss Nancy Stenbo, Pass Christian; Miss Marilyn Weston, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Charles W.

Weston of New Orleans, sister-in-law of the bride. Dr. Griffin served his son as best man. Groomsmen were Gary Griffin, brother of the groom; John Harris, Stonewall, Miss.; Charles W. Weston, New Orleans, and John L. Griffin, Jr., Texarkana, Ark., brother of the groom. James McCommon of Chalmette, La., served as an usher. Jimmie Weston, young brother of the bride, attended the couple as ring bearer.

Tom Bourdin, Pass Christian, provided appropriate musical selections on the organ.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at Our Lady of Lourdes Parish Hall. Assisting the newlyweds in receiving were their parents and members of the wedding party.

Assisting at the reception were Misses Ann, Susan, Lolita and Cathy Wittmann, cousins of the bride, and Mrs. Lorette Wittmann and Mrs. Inez Wittmann, aunts of the bride.

After a wedding trip to Florida, Mr. and Mrs. Griffin will reside in Westwego.

The bride is a graduate of Pass Christian High School and received her B.S. degree from Mississippi State University June 1. She is a member of the American Chemical Society.

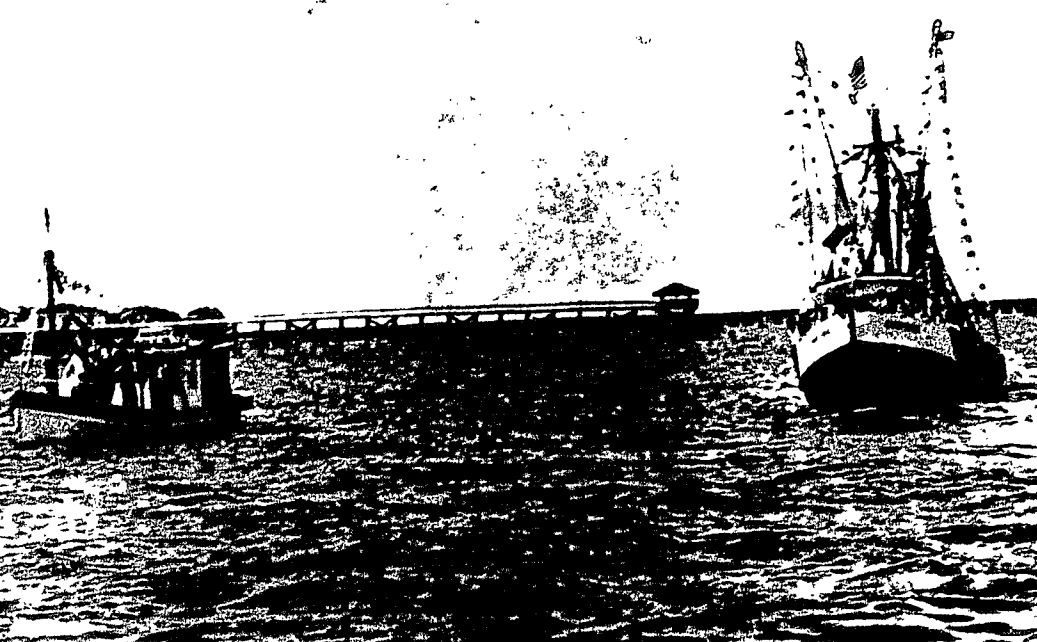

Mr. Griffin, a graduate of St. Stanislaus, received his B.S. degree from Mississippi State University in 1966. He is employed by Union Carbide Corporation in Louisiana.

Miss Weston is the granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Wittmann Sr. of Pass Christian. Grandparents of the groom are Mrs. C. M. Griffin, Bay St. Louis, and Mr. and Mrs. Lavelle Pignord of New Orleans.

MR. DANNY BRADFIELD AND BROTHER GUY OF PASS CHRISTIAN GET KEYS TO HIS NEW CAMARO FROM LAMAR-LANE CHEVROLET SALESMAN J.C. KOENEN.

Mr. Danny Bradfield of Pass Christian shopped all the dealers from Piquette to Biloxi for a new Camaro and got all the different prices. At Lamar-Lane Chevrolet he met salesman J. C. Koenen and got their price. After comparing the different prices, Mr. Bradfield appreciated the honesty shown by J. C. Koenen who truly made him the best offer of all dealers on a new Camaro, and that is why he bought from J.C. at Lamar-Lane Chevrolet. Mr. Bradfield was impressed with the way all of the employees of Lamar-Lane Chevrolet try to please their customers. If you are thinking about buying a new car, truck or station wagon, get the other dealership prices first and get Lamar-Lane Chevrolet prices and see just how much they have you and your wallet at J.C. Koenen.

Benigno Scheduled To Attend Training Class For Sewage

The Mississippi Air and Water Pollution Control Commission has begun its training program in Gulfport for 19 sewage treatment plant operators from 15 municipalities in South Mississippi.

Anthony Benigno, Bay St. Louis, is slated to attend the training sessions.

The municipalities will receive $520 for each employee trained in the program financed by a $105,038 grant from the Federal Water Pollution Control Administration.

The FWPCA said it is the first federally-financed training program for municipal wastewater treatment plant operators in the nation.

The program consists of two weeks of classroom instruction, 10 weeks of combined on-the-job training and instruction plus 16 weeks on-the-job training. Classroom sessions are held on the campus of Jeff Davis Junior College here.

The Gulfport and Pass Christian sewage treatment plant facilities and the lagoon system in Hattiesburg will be used for on-the-job training.

Each trainee will receive $40 for attending the classroom sessions, based on $4 for 10 sessions. All books and training materials are supplied, although commuting expenses are not paid.

William C. Stuart, the Commission's director of training, is in charge of the program. The instructor is Tom Anthony of Pass Christian.

Robert S. Wright, executive secretary of the Commission, said three other programs will be held in the state within the next several months. Two will be in Clarksdale and another in Meridian.

He said 75 persons will be trained during the four programs.

Leanna Sams Awarded Third In 4-H Contest

Leanna Sams, representing Hancock County, won third place in the Public Speaking event at the 4-H District Contest. This win makes Leanna eligible to compete in the 4-H Club Congress at State College, Mississippi, today and tomorrow.

Five Hancock County 4-H Club boys and four Hancock County 4-H Club girls were taken to Ellenville, June 13, by County Agent John W. Smith and Miss Ruth O. Strahan, Extension Home Economist.

The boys and girls participated in the one-day District 4-H contest held at the Jones County Junior College. John Joel Smith took part in the Judging and Entomology contests and took a blue ribbon for his bug collection.

Leroy Ferguson, Duon Ladner, David Ladner and Roger Ladner participated in the Field Crops contest.

Tom Saucier represented the county in the senior division of Clothing while Nancy Evans represented the county in the Junior division.

Katie Smith represented the county in food and nutrition and Leanna Sams represented the county in public speaking taking third place in this event.

The 4-H Club Congress at State College will be the largest ever held in the state when 1,600 Mississippi 4-H'ers gather for competition and education.

They will be competing for the state championship in 55 judging and demonstration contests, ranging from photography to dress making.

"All members attending the Congress are district winners; thus, it is considered a 'cream of the crop' group of young people," said Gordon White, state 4-H leader at Mississippi State University.

There will also be two delegates from each county attending the Citizenship Workshop in conjunction with the two-day Congress. State Senator Ellis Bodron of Vicksburg will be one of the featured speakers.

In addition to participating in contests, 4-H members will have an opportunity to hear reports on the National 4-H Congress and National 4-H Citizenship Short Course. The Mississippi 4-H All Stars will tap several 4-H'ers for membership in that elite organization.

The 4-H All Stars are members who made an outstanding record in 4-H, and who wish to continue by being of service to young people.

Also attending the congress will be 4-H Adult Leaders from most of Mississippi's counties. "In addition to helping their members who are in contests, they will be attending training meetings designed to help guide young people through their formative years," said Mr. White. The adult leaders will be honored at a banquet during the congress.

Local Veterans Attend Convention

The World War I Veterans U.S.A. Inc., held their annual Department Convention in Jackson last week. The delegation from Hancock County Barracks #2537, headed by Commander A. C. Mercier, included the following delegates: Senior Vice Commander Dr. Walter C. Hava, Judge Advocate Maj. Charles E. Harvey, Trustee Irby Chapping and Quartermaster-Adjutant Capt. Harold R. Powell.

Members of the local Auxiliary who attended the Department Auxiliary sessions were: Mrs. Irby Chapping, local President; Mesdames Mercier, Duke, Harvey, Schmidt and Thorning.

The Department was honored by the presence of National Commander Victor V. Miller, of Connecticut, who was also the featured speaker at the Department banquet.

The following Department Officers were elected for the 1969-70 year: State Commander Newton M. Howes, Gulfport; Sr. Vice Commander John C. Broom, Columbia, Jr. Vice Commander J. D. Martin, Jackson; Quartermaster Ralph H. Campbell, Long Beach, Judge Advocate John T. Smith, Jackson; Chaplain W. C. Wyatt, Biloxi. Campbell will also hold the appointive office of Department Adjutant. The 1970 Convention will be held in Gulfport.

New License To Hunt Or Fish Needed July 1

Game Warden Patrick Toomey warns hunters and fishermen that current hunting and fishing licenses expire June 30, 1969, and that wardens will begin checking for 1969-70 licenses July 1.

The State Game and Fish Commission is now in the process of delivering the new licenses to dealers throughout the state and they will be ready for distribution to the public on or before July 1.

Combination hunting and fishing licenses for state residents sell for $5, while fishing licenses are $3 when purchased separately from hunting licenses ($3.50).

Fishermen who will be out of Mississippi's lakes and rivers July 4 are especially reminded to take note of the June 30 expiration date.

MR. CHARLES HAWKINS OF WAVELAND POSES WITH NEW CHEVROLET just purchased for his wife from Lamar-Lane Chevrolet salesman J. C. KOENENN.

Mr. Charles Hawkins of Waveland was wanting a car for his wife to get to and from work. He had been hearing from different people about the very good deals that the folks at Lamar-Lane Chevrolet were giving and also from Mr. John Newkirk a contractor that he is a sub-contractor for in the construction business. At Lamar-Lane Chevrolet he was greeted by courteous salesman J.C. Koenenn who he knew would do his best to give him a good deal on a new Chevrolet. J.C. was able to give him a deal he just couldn't turn down. He recommended J.C. Koenenn and Lamar-Lane Chevrolet to all his friends wanting to save money on a new car. He said he was so satisfied with the deal that he was giving them today. (A. C. LANE ENTERPRISES) MR. CHARLES HAWKINS ADV. Waveland, Miss.

General Electric Awarded AF Contract

The U.S. Air Force has awarded a contract to the Mississippi Test Support Department of the General Electric Company for the development, design, installation, and check-out of state-of-the-art equipment to modernize a major research facility at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base near Dayton, Ohio.

Under the contract, valued at $8,700,000, the GE Department will construct and install an advanced engine compressor research and test facility for the Aeronautical Systems Division of the USAF Systems Command. The new facility will be used by the Aero Propulsion Laboratory at WPAFB to study and test multistage axial flow compressors and associated components of advanced aircraft engines.

ALOFT AGAIN is the Navy helicopter forced down near Kiln three weeks ago. It was repaired at Glass' Service Station by Navy personnel, escorted by Sheriff's deputies Leo Wood and Billy Carbonette Sunday morning to the intersection of Highways 43 and 803 where it took to the air.

Truth is stronger than fiction.

In a country like ours, where you have thousands of products and services to choose from, advertising is your best source of information. It tells you what's available, what's new, and helps you decide what to buy. And, naturally, when you buy something that lives up to its promise, you buy it again... and again.

That's why nearly 44,000 major American businessmen voluntarily pledge allegiance to the Advertising Code of American Business. They know the rewards of selling the truth, and nothing but the truth. They know truth is stronger than fiction. And darn good business too.

TROUSERS MADE from an American Flag seized in a raid on a Blue Meadow Road dwelling are held by Sheriff Fred Curet. Inspecting the trousers with the sheriff is Deputy Alton Lumpkin.

John R. Picard, General Manager of the Mississippi Test Support Department, announced that Robert H. Dickinson has been appointed Program Manager. Picard said that Dickinson and his team will integrate the services, manufacturing capabilities, and equipment of 13 other General Electric departments and operations from Mississippi to Ohio to Massachusetts in the development and construction of the facility. The project, beginning immediately, is expected to take three years to complete.

"A sizable portion of the design and engineering work will be done in GE offices in Bay St. Louis," Picard said. "We will peak at about 50 people and expect to stay in Bay St. Louis for the three-year life of the project."

"We are extremely pleased to have been awarded this new and challenging contract by the Air Force," Picard said. "It is an important supplement to and outgrowth of our Department's extensive experience in aerospace program management work, as well as an indication of the lead role which MTSD enjoys within the General Electric Company in this new and important management systems field."

Accident Victim In Serious Condition

Ronnie Byrd, 19, Poplarville, is still in a serious condition at Hancock General Hospital after a one-car wreck June 15.

Enroute to a fishing camp at Garden Isles where he intended to spend the night Byrd evidently fell asleep when his car left the road and went over and into a ditch on Highway 803 a mile north of Kiln.

It is believed that Byrd was in the car about three hours before being found by Eric Larcon and Virginia Gilbeau who called the sheriff's department.

Deputy Earl Ladner was unable to remove Byrd from the car until a wrecker arrived. The car was completely demolished.

Lutheran Churches to Co-Host 13th Biennial Convention

The Mississippi Gulf Coast Lutheran Churches will co-host the 13th Biennial Convention of the Gulf States District of the Lutheran Women's Missionary League Convention to be held April 25 and 26, 1970 at the Downtown Motel in Gulfport.

Attending a meeting of the St. Matthews Lutheran Church in Gulfport Wednesday night, June 4 were Mrs. Karen Smith and Mrs. Marie Guenard from the Lutheran Church of the Pines in Waveland. Mrs. Smith is chairman in charge of decorations and Mrs. Guenard chairman in charge of manuals and displays.

Attending the meeting from Good Shepherd Lutheran Church, Biloxi, were Mrs. Anne MacRae, entertainment and Mrs. Eunice VanLoon, publicity. Attending from St. Matthew's Lutheran Church, Gulfport, were Mrs. Lillian Burnaman, General Chairman, Mrs. Connie Werner, registration; Mrs. Marge Darhoff, banquet; Mrs. Lois Holdcraft, luncheon; Mrs. Ethel Huebner, secretary and Mrs. Ella Lane, treasurer. Attending from Holy Trinity Lutheran Church, Mississippi City advances that are taking place nationally; an all out effort will be required to exceed that pace.

Copies of the report will be delivered to legislators, economic development agencies, institutions of higher learning and public libraries in Mississippi.

State's Economy...

fare-to-population ratio and a low labor force participation rate. The welfare ratio for the United States in 1967 was 4.3 per cent compared to Mississippi's 8.5 per cent. Over 100,000 more Mississippians were on some form of welfare than would be the case had the national average prevailed. The ratio of Mississippi's employed civilian labor force to its population is 32.4 per cent, while the U.S. average is 37.6 per cent. If Mississippi increased its ratio to the U.S. average, 123,000 additional workers would be employed. Mississippi's birth rate is one of the highest in the nation. In 1968 there were 20.6 births per 1,000 population, a figure exceeded by only five other states. Despite the high birth rate, the State's population is not keeping up with the national average because of out-migration. In 1960 more than 1.2 million people born in the State were living in other states. This is more than half as many as are living in the State.

"If Mississippi is to reach its economic goal of 75 per cent of the U.S. per capita income by 1975, it must increase its economic development efforts," the report states. "Continuation of the current activity level will result in only 67 per cent of the national average and a continued widening of the dollar gap between Mississippi and the United States."

A report notes that the State's economic progress depends upon an improved educational level of the entire population and on the size and quality of the labor force.

"Agricultural employment," the report said, "is expected to continue to decline until the mechanization process is completed about 1980. It will then begin to rise gradually, but even then far fewer persons will be employed in this field than are now."

The R & D report points out that the State is enlarging and improving its educational and training facilities, but a much greater effort must be made just to keep pace with the rapid

THIS BUNCH of speckles were caught by Bill Stewart Jr. and Whitney Carvin (not pictured) out in the Bay, which proves that speckles are moving our way. They were caught in a shrimp bait.

MR. AND MRS. ULESS BERGERON are shown with their prize catch while on vacation last week. They have returned from a campaign and fishing trip at St. Andrews State Park, Fla. Mr. Bergeron caught a 22 pound black grouper and Mrs. Bergeron hooked an 18-pound one. In addition they reported a large catch of Red snapper and groupers.

THESE BOYS were very happy when they speared a 4 1/2 lb. flounder and caught the 2 1/2 pounder while fishing. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Junior Geoffrey. Left to right, Ricky and A.J. Geoffrey who are ardent fishermen.

KANTCHA KETCHUM

Our fishing and hunting buddies Clyde Ladner, Floyd Ladner, Dud Ladner, Glynn Ladner, Rena Lee and Bill Anderson from Necaise Crossing were fishing for speckles out at Telegraph Key and other places Sunday. They come down often and usually bring home their share of fish.

money, and payment of interest thereon, by charges or mortgages on the Corporation's real and personal property, and on its rights and interest of any kind, insofar as is lawful.

k) Engage generally in any business in which a corporation may engage and perform any act or deed which may be performed by a business corporation under the laws of the State of Mississippi.

The enumeration of specific objects and purposes and powers herein shall not be construed as deemed in denial of, or as restricting, the rights of the Corporation to engage in any legal business or to perform any act or deed in addition to these specifically enumerated herein.
The Corporation shall enjoy every power, capacity, and authority granted or conferred by all applicable laws and/or statutes now in force, or to be hereafter enacted.

4. The capitalization requirements of the corporation showing division of classes and designation of series of shares:
PREFERRED CAPITAL STOCK

dends shall be received after paid Preferred Capital Stock hereafter mentioned; shall have full voting power (one vote per share of Common Capital Stock); and made subject to such other restrictions, limitations, and qualifications as stated, referenced to, or provided for herein.

PAID IN CAPITAL

Seven Hundred (700) shares of Preferred Capital Stock of this Corporation will be subscribed to by the incorporators hereof pursuant to a plan to be adopted by the Board of Directors at its first organizational meeting. The amount of paid-in capital with which this Corporation shall begin business

other restrictions, limitations, and qualifications as stated, referenced to, or provided for herein.

It shall be left to the Board of Directors of this corporation by a majority vote of two-thirds (2/3) to issue shares of Preferred Capital Stock, as hereafter defined, of Series
"A", or Series "B", and to determine the amount of each series to be issued in accordance with the total authorized number of shares of Preferred Capital Stock.

The holders of the shares of Preferred Capital Stock (Series "A" or Series "B") shall not sell, except in accordance with the provisions established within the By-Laws of this Corporation, any of the same to any third person until such holder desiring to sell shall have first offered the same through the secretary of the Corporation to the other holders of Preferred Capital Stock or Common Capital Stock in writing for a period of Ten (10) days. Within the first eight (8) days of the ten (10) day period, the other then registered holders of Preferred Capital Stock shall have the right to purchase said stock so offered in proportion to their holdings of Preferred Capital Stock. In the next two (2) days of the ten (10) day period the holders of Common Capital Stock shall have the right to purchase the Preferred Capital Stock offered but not therefore purchased by the holders of Preferred Capital Stock. After the initial Ten (10) day period, non-stockholders shall have the right to purchase the Preferred Capital Stock offered but not therefore purchased by the Preferred Capital Stock or Common Capital Stock holders.

Preferred Capital Stock of this Corporation shall be issued in two series, Series "A" and Series "B". Preferred Capital Stock - Series "A" shall have full voting power (one vote per share of Series "A" Preferred Capital Stock), but will only receive ninety percent (90%) of the maximum dividends declared by the Board of Directors of this Corporation to be paid on each share of Preferred Capital Stock. The remaining ten percent (10%) will be held in capital reserve or divided proportionally between all share holders of outstanding Preferred Capital Stock. Preferred Capital Stock - Series "B" shall have no voting power but will receive one-hundred percent (100%) of the maximum dividends declared by the Board of Directors of this Corporation to be paid on each share of Preferred Capital Stock.

COMMON CAPITAL STOCK

The total authorized number of shares of Common Capital Stock is four-hundred (400) shares without nominal or par value. Without necessity of action by the shareholders, shares of Common Capital Stock without nominal or par value may be issued within the limits of the authorized number of shares by the Corporation from time to time for such consideration as may be fixed from time to time by the Board of Directors. Any and all such shares of Common Capital Stock so issued shall be in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Stock Holders Agreements, if the full fixed consideration, whether cash and/or property for such shares, has been paid or delivered, shall be deemed full paid Common Capital Stock and not liable to any further call or assessment, and the holder of such shares shall not be liable for any further payment thereon.

The holders of the shares of Common Capital Stock shall have the full right to sell any of the same to any third person in accordance with the provisions established in the By-Laws of this Corporation.

Common Capital Stock without nominal or par value may be made subject to redemption in such manner, at such time or times, and at such price or prices, shall be given secondary preference as to net assets during existence of the Corporation and upon dissolution or winding up of the Corporation, whether voluntary or involuntary; be given the right to receive dividends annually, or by determination of the Board of Directors by a majority vote of two-thirds (2/3) dividends may be paid quarterly, or semi-annually, and payment of dividends shall be received after paid Preferred Capital Stock
hereafter mentioned; shall have full voting power (one vote per share of Common Capital Stock); and made subject to such other restrictions, limitations, and qualifications as stated, referenced to, or provided for herein.

PAID IN CAPITAL

Seven Hundred (700) shares of Preferred Capital Stock of this Corporation will be subscribed to by the incorporators
hereof pursuant to a plan to be adopted by the Board of Directors at its first organizational meeting. The amount of paid-
in capital with which this Corporation shall begin business is One Thousand and Fifty and no/100 ($1,050) Dollars, which on the execution of these articles, has been paid for in cash.

AVE., TOLEDO, OHIO.

You are summoned to ap-said State, on the Fourth Monday of October A.D. 1969, to defend the suit No. 10,791 in RALLY JULY 3.

Daniel of the Methodist church will be held July 3, on the 11th of the month, at the municipal pier, beginning at 11:00 P.M. and ending at midnight and is for the people of all religious faiths. A planning session to discuss details of the rally will be held at 9:00 this morning. Two from each church in Bay St. Louis will attend the session which will be held at the Methodist church.

Senior Girl Scouts to Attend Special Events

Three outstanding Senior Girl Scouts of Gulf Pine Council will experience one of the highlights of their years in Girl Scouting (next) week when they attend special events with other outstanding Girl Scouts from all over the United States. These girls were selected because of their qualities in many areas and were interviewed by Selections Committees and subjected to competition with numerous other Senior Girl Scouts throughout the country for these events.

Marian Clare Duggan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Duggan, Jr. of Biloxi; Nancy Hussey, daughter of Mrs. Loren Hussey of Gulfport; and Nancy Pool, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar J. Pool, Jr. of Gulfport were selected in 1968 from many applicants in Gulf Pine Council to participate in the National and International events which they will depart for next week.

Next week Duggan will be a guest of the Canadian Girl Guides for three weeks. Her itinerary includes flying to Atlanta, New York, Montreal, Charlottetown, and Prince Edward Island. Three other girls from the United States will be attending the Canadian event. They are from Alabama, North Carolina and Georgia. The American girls will be guests of honor at a ton day primitive Ranger Camp at the

P. E. I National Park and during their tour will be hosted by four Canadian Rangers and their families. Biloxi's Mayor Guice is sending greetings and the traditional Biloxi Plaque to the Governor of Prince Edward Island by Marian, who is a tenth grade student at Sacred Heart Girls School. Marian will present Biloxi's historic and commemorative tiles to her hostesses in Canada.

Nancy Hussey a Senior at St. John's High School of Gulfport was selected to attend the Creative Arts Conference in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania where approximately 300 girls from the entire United States will participate in sculpting, painting, ceramics, photography and textile design. The Girl Scouts will attend theatrical productions and visit art galleries from June 24 to July 6 in the event sponsored by the Philadelphia Girl Scouts in cooperation with the Moore College of Art. More than one hundred and fifty cities and towns of the U.S.A. are honored to have Girl Scouts attending this conference. The girls will be given the opportunity to work in the field of the arts in the form of their choice and will be guided in their interest and art experiences by faculty members of local art schools. For some the event is a "blast", for others a "cool conference", but for all it will be a mind-stretching experience with girls like and unlike each other from all over the United States.

Joyce Pool, a Junior at Gulfport East High School, will attend the Adventure in Marine Biology held in Los Angeles, California June 23 - July 9. She will enjoy a stay at Camp White's Landing on Catalina Island for two weeks and the remaining days will be spent in the home of a Los Angeles hostess. She will have the pleasure of visiting the Scripps Institute of Oceanography at La Jolla and the Marine Museum at Cabrillo Beach Park. Girls from the entire U.S.A. will be attending this National event.

Each of the three girls have excelled in scholastic and extra-curricular activities in addition to Girl Scouting endeavors. They are active in their Churches and in community life, serving as volunteers in several areas. Gulf Pine Girl Scout Council feels they represent the ideal in young girls and is proud to have them represent South Mississippi.

ANSWERS FOR VETERANS

Q - In the last minute rush of final exams, packing and leaving college for the summer, I lost the certification of attendance card which I received from the Veterans Administration. How can I get a replacement? I know that I must return this card in order to receive my final educational assistance check from the VA.

A - Write, call or visit the VA regional office where your veteran records are on file to request another certification of attendance card. You are correct that the card must be returned in order to be paid your final allowance check.

Q - Ten years ago I obtained a VA guaranteed home loan under the Korean G.I. Bill. The guaranty limit was then $7,500. I now want to get a loan to enlarge and improve my home. Will the VA guaranty up to $5,000 of this loan, which is the difference between the former limit of $7,500 and the new $12,500 limit?

A - Under a law that went into effect May 7, 1968, the maximum VA guaranty was increased from $7,500 to $12,500. Therefore, a veteran who previously used $7,500 entitlement has a remaining entitlement balance of $5,000, provided that his eligibility for a G.I. loan has not expired.

Q - My wife died recently. She was the designated beneficiary of my National Service Life Insurance policy. Must I now designate in writing my children as the new beneficiaries, or will the Veterans Administration automatically pay the proceeds of my policy to them?

A - If the named beneficiary dies before the insured, the only provision for automatic payment is to the insured's estate. To avoid this the insured should make a new beneficiary designation, naming the children, the share he wishes each to receive, and specifying what is to be done with the share of any child who might die before the insured.

VA Form 28-368 for naming beneficiaries may be obtained from the Veterans Administration Insurance office where the veteran sends his premium, or from the VA regional office where the veteran's records are on file.

MR. HAROLD J. PIQUE, JR. OF LONG BEACH, MISS. TAKES DELIVERY OF HIS NEW IMPALA CUSTOM COUPE FROM SALESMAN JOE PALAZZO OF LAMAR-LANE CHEVROLET IN BAY ST. LOUIS.

Mr. Harold J. Pique, Jr. of Long Beach, Miss. was in the market for a new car, he visited several dealerships and got their prices. He had been told by his friends to go to Lamar-Lane Chevrolet and ask for salesman Joe Palazzo to give him their price. Joe was able to give him a very good price. Joe was able to give him a very good price on a new Impala Custom Coupe. It was the best price any dealership gave him. Mr. Pique was also very happy to hear about the fine service department at Lamar-Lane Chevrolet. If you're looking for a new car, truck or station wagon, and want to save the money, the place to go is Lamar-Lane Chevrolet and ask for Joe Palazzo.

4-H'ers Can Add Beauty to Community

Results of the labors of 4-H gardeners in the community are showing in various ways these days. Lush green lawns flanked by neatly trimmed shrubs, colorful flowers, and in many places a flourishing vegetable garden are signs that a 4-H green thumb was there. The 4-H youths are engaged in horticultural projects that include raising flowers, fruits and vegetables. Landscaping, too, is an important segment of the program for both home and community areas.

An estimated 175,000 boys and girls from coast-to-coast are enrolled in the national 4-H Horticultural program supervised by the Cooperative Extension Service, and sponsored by Allis-Chalmers for the 24th straight year. Adults experienced in gardening usually serve as volunteer leaders for horticultural clubs.

Allis-Chalmers annually provides incentive awards for county, state and national winners. To be awarded this year will be eight national scholarships of $800 each; an expense-paid trip to the National 4-H Congress in Chicago for the top state winner, and four honor medals per county.

Soil improvement, seed testing for germination, plant propagation and pruning techniques are some of the scientific aspects of the 4-H projects. For youths living in rural areas, the roadside vegetable and flower stand is a popular and profitable venture.

Successful careers have materialized for former 4-H'ers because of their gardening experience. Some of the 1968 national award recipients already are applying their $800 scholarships toward a degree in agronomy or horticultural sciences.

RECEIVES AWARD

Rev. John Noone, moderator for Our Lady of the Gulf Altar Boys, announced Dale Ladner was awarded Altar Boy of the Month plaque for June. This is the second time Dale has received the honor.

The need is great for skilled horticulturists, including landscape architects, due to part in expanding land beautification and public recreational facilities. Career opportunities are also promising in research, floristry, the nursery business and in sales.

The 4-H Horticultural program is open to any boy or girl between 9 and 19 years old. More information can be obtained from the local County Extension Office.

Boat Registrations Will Expire June 30

Gerald Seal, Patrolman in this area, for the Mississippi Boat and Water Safety Commission, reminds boat owners that boat registration certificates of number will expire June 30, 1969.

Such certificates should be renewed on or before that time.

for a two year period from July 1, through June 30, 1971. Renewals may be obtained from the Sheriff's office in Bay St. Louis.

The certificate should be aboard the vessel when it is in operation warns Seal.

MR. LEODIS SMITH AND FAMILY OF BAY ST. LOUIS ACCEPT DELIVERY OF THEIR NEW STATION WAGON FROM LAMAR-LANE CHEVROLET SALESMAN J.C. KOENEN.

Mr. Leodis Smith of Bay St. Louis was interested in a new car but he had to have something large enough to carry all of his family. He shopped around the coast dealers for a while and then he visited his friend at Lamar-Lane Chevrolet J. C. Koenen, J. C. recommended that the transportation he needed for his family of six children would be a station wagon. J. C. was able to work out a deal on a new station wagon that Mr. Smith just couldn't turn down and it was the best deal he had been offered in his shopping round. By shopping at Lamar-Lane Chevrolet Mr. Smith was able to save money, which is important today especially when buying a new car, truck or station wagon. Mr. Smith recommends Lamar-Lane Chevrolet and J. C. Koenen to all of his friends, they save you money on their deals. MR. LEODIS SMITH (GERRY LANE ENTERPRISE) Bay St. Louis, Miss.

WE ACCEPT BANK AMERICAN AND MASTERCARD

SCREAMS OF PROTEST have arisen from individualists among the American populace who violently resent being more or less reduced to a mere number in almost every phase of modern life. The advent of ZIP code by the postal department became for many, the legendary final straw, probably causing the greatest furore over a single governmentally approved act since prohibition introduced the public to the joys of forbidden fruit — illegal booze in the smoky sanctuaries of speakeasies; and fattened bank accounts of mobsters of the era.

HAVING BEEN GRADUALLY indoctrinated into the numerically oriented world of today, we have little difficulty memorizing the figures on Social Security cards, bank account cards, license plates, telephone dials, etc. etc. Too, being less than astute in the field of simple arithmetic, we'd be the last to resent the fact that computers are less apt to make mistakes than people.

AS EXPERTS ALMOST daily bemoan the loss of identity to a bunch of fuzzy looking holes punched in bits of cardboard which forbid the bearer to fold, staple or mutilate, a much more insidious threat is creeping upon us in the form of the scrambled alphabet. This menace, if not controlled, threatens to make every dictionary in existence obsolete. We refer to the use of initials instead of words, especially in newspaper headlines and on TV and radio news reporting. For at least a century the only set of letters in general use was R.S.V.P., probably adopted because the French words were a bit difficult to spell and might be obnoxious to the reader. The use of U.S. for United States was pretty much limited to postmarks, book covers and the like, where lack of space was the acceptable excuse. The New Deal of the early thirties really started the trend with the N.R.A., W.P.A., C.C.C., progressing to N.L.R.B.'s, C.I.A.'s, and what have you. This sort of thing down when a group of organizations, later discovered to have definitely Communist affiliations, became letter conscious, and congress became left-wing organization conscious.

NOW, JUST PICK UP your daily paper — the hasty headline scanner will find he is as obsolete as any pre-historic beast. Sets of initials are used so frequently that one must read the entire article to know just what happened to whom, and even when! C.D. for Civil Defense isn't too bad, but S.D. (student demonstrators) can, and does at times, stand for any number of different things. Then there is U.F., which wasn't too bad for simply the United Fund, but when they stuck the G in the middle for Givers, it begins to look somewhat like a dirty word. We realize we've only scraped the surface of this timely topic, because in this age of rockets to the moon, if two words are combined with even a bit of frequency, they become just two letters, and with only 26 letters in our alphabet, duplication, and consequently, an enormous amount of confusion, is bound to result. So much for that, let's get on with P.P.'s for the week of June 26, in the good old S.C.E., and find out what's G.O.A.T. (going on again tomorrow) — revolting isn't it? But what with everything else being condensed, maybe within the next few years we'll all be reading and reading sort of super shorthand, using only letters of an extended alphabet and forgetting all about the use of real words!

AS THE HOUND of summer activities gets into full swing, just about every weekend features an event of note. The local version of the Broadway smash hit, The Music Man, directed by the very capable and talented Oliver McKenna, was so much enjoyed by the audience that no one complained audibly about the lack of air conditioning in the Bay Junior High Gym. The Music Man featured performers in just about every age group except infancy. This diversity in years spawned what we believe to be the most cast parties ever held in one week in this area. The youngest actors and actresses were tested Thursday night; teenage players consumed gallons of soft drinks on Friday night; and adults partied until the wee hours Sunday following the final performance.

RECENT BRIDE Gladys (Mrs. Jody) Cox was honored at a luncheon Wednesday at Bay-Waveland Yacht Club hosted by her new friends-in-law Nancy (Mrs. Lucian) Cox, guests were Gay (Mrs. Gay) Hill and her sister Betty, Jo (Mrs. Omer) de Bever, Jackie (Mrs. Bartwell) Cox and her sister Janet (Mrs. Milton) Blawie, Ellen (Mrs. Chuck) Smith, Nell (Mrs. Bill) Fritch, Margaret Hadden, Rita (Mrs. Sonny) White, Pat (Mrs. Charles) Dickson, Jill (Mrs. Gerald) Cox and Lucille (Mrs. Dave) Potzsch.

RENEWING THEIR wedding vows on the occasion of their 25th anniversary, Wednesday, June 11, were Sylvia and John Yost. Rev. James Devaney performed the ceremony, after which the Yosts entertained at a poolside reception at their Charmant Harbor summer home. Among those present were Mrs. Yost's sister, Betty (Mrs. Charles) Smith, and her sister, Lucille (Mrs. Bill) Fritch, and her sister, Janet (Mrs. Milton) Blawie, and her sister, Ellen (Mrs. Chuck) Smith, and her sister, Nell (Mrs. Bill) Fritch, and her sister, Rita (Mrs. Sonny) White, and her sister, Pat (Mrs. Charles) Dickson, and her sister, Jill (Mrs. Gerald) Cox, and her sister, Lucille (Mrs. Dave) Potzsch.

RELATED ANNIVERSARY celebrations are on the way to Lillian and Al Omer who celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on June 2.

HELEN and CAROLACK Wahlen spent last week visiting their grandparents Lillian and Joe Wahlen while their sister Cheryl was in the process of having her appendix removed in a Bay-Olivia hospital.

FLORENCE and Jim Hagen are all settled over the back seat and ahead between airplanes.

MR. HOWARD LIZANA ACCEPTS DELIVERY OF HIS NEW PICK-UP TRUCK FROM LAMAR-LANE CHEVROLET SALESMAN JOE PALAZZO.

Mr. Howard Lizana of Long Beach was in need of a new pick-up truck, he heard from his friends about the very good deals offered at Lamar-Lane Chevrolet in Bay St. Louis. He shopped the coast dealers and got their prices and then he paid a visit to Lamar-Lane Chevrolet and was greeted by salesman Joe Palazzo. He told Joe what he wanted in a pick-up truck and Joe gave him a price. Well the Lamar-Lane Chevrolet price was the best he had gotten from anyone, so naturally he bought his new pick-up from Lamar-Lane Chevrolet. While Mr. Lizana was at Lamar-Lane he also noticed the efficient service department operation, how all the people are factory trained and know their automotive business, service is important where you buy a new car or truck. If you're looking for a new car, truck or station wagon and want to save money, the place to go is Lamar-Lane Chevrolet. If you're in Bay St. Louis and ask for Joe Palazzo. Arnold-Lochart Vows Exchanged

Miss Susan Mary Arnold and Sidney M. Lochart were recently married in St. Clare's Catholic Church, Waveland, Bay, Walter Maloney performed the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. R. K. Ketchum, organist, played the wedding march and a program of appropriate selections.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Serio of Bay St. Louis and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Lochart of Moss Point, Miss.

Given in marriage by her stepfather, the bride wore a floor length gown of white satin fashioned on A lines. The long sleeves ended in points over the hands and the short train of French lace was attached to the waistline with a flat satin bow. Her waist length veil of illusion fell from a headpiece of satin and lace leaves and she carried a cascade of daisies and gladioli interspersed with English ivy.

Miss Mary Ellen Thomas was maid of honor and the bride's sister Miss Sandra Ann Arnold, was bridesmaid. Miss Kelly Lochart served as flower girl and Steve Ridd as ringbearer.

The maids were floor length gowns of blue dotted Swiss with matching satin ribbons accented an empire waist. They wore bows fashioned of similar material with short veils of illusion on their heads and carried small cascades of white daisies and English ivy.

The flower girl wore a gown similar to the bridesmaid's and carried a basket of daisies and ivy.

Bruce Dagget was best man and Jerry Lochart, brother of the groom, was groomsman. Tommy Kidd, Billy Arnold, Darryl Bourgeois and Hank Tillman, all of Bay St. Louis, were ushers.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in Parish Hall. The couple was assisted in receiving by their parents and the bridal party. The bride's table, overlaid with a white linen lace trimmed cloth, held a five-tiered cake trimmed with spun sugar roses.

The bride is a graduate of Bay Senior High School. The groom, a graduate of Bay Senior High, attended the University of Southern Mississippi and is presently in the U.S. Navy stationed on the U.S.S. Sylvestra off the Coast of Italy. Out of town guests were Mr.

Bay Couple to Wed August 16

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest K. McDowell, of Chandlery Terrace, Bay St. Louis, announce the engagement of their daughter Margaret Vivian to Allan Joseph Sarraf, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Allan Joseph Sarraf, Sr. of Highland Drive, Bay St. Louis.

Margaret is a graduate of St. Joseph Academy in Bay St. Louis and a graduate of Sophie College in New Orleans and is presently working for the National Bank of Commerce Bank American Center in New Orleans as a private secretary.

Allan is a graduate of St. Stanislaus College and is a senior at the University of Southern Mississippi in Hattiesburg and is in the field of Physiology.

Allan will graduate in June of 1970 and plans to attend graduate school in order to study for his doctorate.

The wedding will take place on August 16 at Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church at 11 a.m.

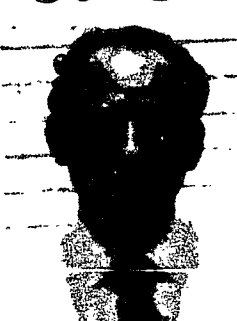

OLG HAS SPECIAL MASS

Most Rev. Joseph Brunini, Bishop Natchez-Jackson Diocese, will install Father Gregory Johnson as pastor of Our Lady of the Gulf Parish at a special Mass at 7 p.m., July 7. A reception will follow in the school cafeteria.

Further details will be given in a parish letter.

MR. RONALD E. LASHLEY OF WAVELAND STANDS WITH LAMAR-LANE CHEVROLET SALESMAN JOHN GALLAGHER AS HE ACCEPTS DELIVERY OF HIS DEPENDABLE USED CAR.

I was looking for a good dependable car to go to work in so naturally I went to Lamar-Lane Chevrolet and discussed my needs with John Gallagher. My family had purchased a car from Lamar-Lane Chevrolet and I have confidence in their dealership. John helped me make my decision as to selection of the right car for my needs pointing out the good features that were important in selecting a good used car. I was able to get a deal that was very good, and at a price I was willing to pay, so if you're in need of a good clean used car, truck or station wagon visit Lamar-Lane Chevrolet and salesman John Gallagher. I recommend them to all my friends.

Tax Collections Show Increase

Led by an increase of 7.8 percent in total state tax collections, Mississippi's taxonomic indicators, as compiled by the Mississippi Economic Council and listed in the MEC's monthly NEWS BULLETIN, showed upward trends during the months of April and May as compared to the same two months in 1968.

The large increase in total state tax collections, in part, reflects changes in collection methods and advances in rates brought about by the 1968 legislative session. The collections for May were $33,290,468 as compared to $18,961,450 during May last year.

The second and third place leaders in percentage increases were state sales tax collections and state bank debits. Climbing from collections of $12,849,863 in May 1968 to $15,944,290 during May of this year sales tax collections increased 24.5 percent, while bank debits increased 18.3 percent from $1.9 billion in April 1968 to $2.2 billion in April 1969.

Two of the indicators showed percentage decreases. New claims for unemployment compensation went down 0.9 percent and total unemployment compensation claims dropped 9.2 percent. Decreases in both areas actually reflected improvements in the economy of the state.

The five remaining indicators all showed percentage increases, ranging from 3.0 percent in non-agricultural employment to 9.7 percent in consumption of industrial gas. Non-agricultural employment moved from 542,500 in April 1968 to 559,109 in April of this year, while 2,301,772 million cubic feet of industrial gas was used during April 1969 as compared to 2,538,363 million cubic feet during April 1968.

Gasoline tax collections jumped 7.8 percent, from $5.2 million in May 1968 to $5.6 million during May 1969. Telephone in service and consumption of electricity moved up 7.8 percent and 6.8 percent, respectively. Comparing the months of April 1968 and 1969, the telephones in service climbed 53,036. An increase of 54.3 million kilowatt hours resulted from the comparison of the May 1968 figures to those of May 1969.

The Music Man Beats The Heat

review by L'Inconnu

Like knights of old riding to tilt against the enemy, the cast of THE MUSIC MAN last week went valiantly into battle against a June heat wave and superacoustics... and won the engagement by audience acclaim. Director Olive McKenna's talented cast for three nights donned their 1910 costumes and sang and danced with much verve and gaiety as if cool breezes had been blowing through the steaming Junior high gymnasium. Richard Ford's orchestra, boxed into a windowless corner, played beautifully, obviously conscious of its very real importance to the success of the show; and the stage and technical crews shifted gently and efficiently between the semi-darkness, focused spotlights, and attended props and sound effects. Meredith Willson's famous musical has a nostalgic, heartwarming appeal to any audience, and these three performances deserve special praise for excellence despite adverse conditions.

Under production since Easter, with three and four nights week devoted to practice at first, the cast had for the past month rehearsed six nights a week and actually lost pounds in the process... yet every member questioned exclaimed at the experience was a tremendous pleasure. "I wouldn't have missed it for the world!" said one. "These people are simply the greatest!" said another. "And just think, I didn't know half of them before we started!" "It's been so much fun being in a play along with my children... sort of a family affair!" commented a third. To the reviewer, what THE MUSIC MAN accomplished was something very satisfying and enriching... not only a memorable performance but also a summertime community project involving whole families and the sorts of well over a hundred people of assorted ages (and with no generation gap!).

Although in a cast of this size it is difficult to give credit to individual performers, special audits must go to many of these gifted people... to Mr. Music Man himself, Bunk Gardner, and leading lady Rose Ford for their re-creation of the fast-talking con man and his sweet-voiced lady librarian and for their particularly beautiful duet "Until There Was You"; to child star Richard Martin, who captivated the audiences with his acting ability and his clear young voice in both solo numbers; and to Ed Martin, John Stern, and Robert Taylor, all Little Theater veterans whose excellent character performances like those of Frances Frankiewicz and Inez have required much more than the ability to sing. Bravos are in order too for the appealing young lovers Sharon McKenna and Norris Sumrall and for Little

Nancy Evans, who showed great promise for future roles (maybe we have here another Jewel Tisamm!)

As is true with any musical, the song and dance interludes are more memorable than the plot, and the quartet composed of Max Dossett, George Canaga, Al Carlson, and Bill Terry were a tremendous hit with the audience, as were the Pick-a-Little Ladies (Inez Favre, Mary Ellen Murphy, Ursula Favre, Mary McCarthy, Lois Wiltz, and Carolyn Crull). Trained by professional choreographer Betty Lou Nay for many weeks, teen-aged dancers Lisa White, Julie Stack, Kathleen Woods, Mike Hereford, Tom Landon, and Wade Stevens brought youthful grace and good looks to their outstanding performances; and the numbers such as "The Wells Fargo Wagon", sung by the entire chorus of River City townspeople were not only good music but so gay and light-hearted that the audience could momentarily forget the heat.

A special paragraph is being set aside in recognition of talented and gracious Mrs. Otis Davis, whose difficult piano accompaniment was perfectly done and who uncompromisingly drove from her Gulfport home to Bay St. Louis and back every night of every rehearsal... surely remarkable devotion to the cause of bringing good theater to this area.

Naturally a reviewer's top acclaim, however, must go, if the play is successful, to the director, and Olive McKenna rates an ovation for her courage in attempting such a gigantic undertaking in the first place. She had the benefit of experienced technical assistance, of course, from John Stack, who designed and made the delightful sets; from Terry Malone II, who as stage manager coordinated all sound and light cues from a central switchboard; from Lou Wilkerson and her costume committee and Dawn Penrose and her prop committee; and from Burt Barrett and many others involved in spotlights, sound equipment, makeup, posters, publicity, hospitality, programs, tickets, and the countless facets of a good show. But over and above all these aspects, the responsibility for success or failure was hers alone. Her time and her talents and her knowledge of music were given unreservedly, and though she feels wholehearted appreciation for her cast ("They were absolutely wonderful!" she says feelingly), still in the final analysis the biggest bouquet of orchids unquestionably goes to "Ollie". THE FANTASTIC KISS, SOUTH PACIFIC, and now THE MUSIC MAN are familiar shows to theater-goers of this area because of her efforts, and from this reviewer's point of view, it's a staggering accomplishment.

Cpl. Carver Receives Promotion in Vietnam

Marine Corporal Charles C. Carver, son of Mrs. Oswald Carver of 242 Citizen St., Bay St. Louis, Miss., was promoted to his present rank while serving with the 11th Engineer Battalion, Third Marine Division in Vietnam.

His promotion was based on time in service and rank, military appearance, and his knowledge of selected military subjects.

As part of the Third Marine Division's mission, the battalion has been supporting the division just south of the Demilitarized Zone.

His unit is also engaged in a civic action program designed to assist the Vietnamese people in completing self-help projects, such as the building of wells, culverts, small bridges and schools. Equipment and materials are made available through the Marine Corps Reserve Civic Action Fund.

Theater production, GENERATION, to be directed by Edward Craig, will be held at the theater on Monday, June 23, and Thursday, June 26, at 7 P.M.

Mrs. Colson Named Leader of Liquid Embroidery Class

Mrs. Joanne Colson has been appointed district leader of Liquid Embroidery instructors in this area for Tri-Chem, Inc. of Belloville, New Jersey. The wife of Curtis Colson, Joanne lives at Rt. 3, in Bay Saint Louis, Mississippi, and has been active in the field of Liquid Embroidery instruction -- demonstrating the internationally known decorative hobby at church and community events, and private classes -- since September, 1968.

In her new responsibility, Mrs. Colson will supervise the growing Liquid Embroidery instructional activities in Bay St. Louis and Hancock county. Liquid Embroidery by Tri-Chem is the popular and original ball point tubes of decorating colors--permanent and washable--which enables people without extraordinary talents to easily beautify and stylize wearing apparel, home furnishings, wall decor, and gift items, including glass, plastic, metal and wooden surfaces. The creative craft and hobby pastime is taught at free, in-home classes by qualified local instructors like Mrs. Colson.

MR. AND MRS. PAUL E. LARSEN AND DAUGHTER OF NEW ORLEANS ARE TAKING DELIVERY OF THEIR 1969 IMPALA SPORT COUPE FROM JOHN GALLAGHER OF LAMAR-LANE CHEVROLET.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Larsen residents of Bay St. Louis now living in New Orleans were in the market for a new car so they came back to Bay St. Louis and visited Lamar-Lane Chevrolet. Being a personal friend of salesman John Gallagher made it a lot easier for them as they had confidence in him and knew he would treat them right and give them the best deal they could receive from any dealership. John Gallagher of Lamar-Lane Chevrolet was able to help them select a 1969 Impala Sport Coupe that was to their liking and at a very good price. The Larsens also know how and very good the service department of Lamar-Lane is and are able to take care of auto problems if they arrive at the service personnel are all factory trained in their fields. Looking for a new car, truck or station wagon, visit Lamar-Lane Chevrolet and ask for John Gallagher.

KANTCHA KETCHUM

By L.S. (Doc) Ellison

Even though the weather has been hot the past week, men have been going out making good catches of fresh and salt water fish. They are being caught in nets, crab traps while soft fishing is getting better. All flounders are being caught by hook and line as well as speared. Crab boils and fish fries are the order of the day. The bays are full of people swimming, fishing, etc.

All summer sports are being enjoyed in, especially by those spending their vacations on Mississippi Gulf Coast.

Leading while fishing off the pier is getting more popular the time. It is a better way to catch fish than hunting them in a boat, fishermen claim.

There is no special age for who go fishing. Both young and old enjoy the sport. Among younger is Allen Lafontaine catches his share of fish.

At Duff of Biloxi and my Baudry, of Jackson, busy pulling in various salt fish the other day, including speckles, white trout and others. Both are 14 years Older boys like Yours Truly, me Carver and others still fishing. They are past 70 mark. Try fishing, it's for what ails you. Don't let the old rocking chair get Little Engelhorn loves his fish. He is looking for a partner. Not a bad player either. He writes about sports in Jackson Clarion Ledger.

Charlie L. Mutter visited brother Ben Mutter for a last week. Mutter is from the Air Force and be back soon to do some Raymond Allen and Rodney Marquis were telling us of the 28 big hard crabs they caught. They were mighty good eating too, they said.

This is good news. Evan (Red) Lusich's two sons Dale and Darrow with little Billy Bourgeois speared 14 nice flounders. Were they thrilled? Another proof that floundering is at its best now.

George Troxler and his wife with their son Geo. Jr. catch a lot of shrimp with a 16 ft. seine. They drag between the bars when the tide is out. One way to get 'em. They also get their share of flounders. The Troxlers have been coming over from New Orleans for years to enjoy their summer home.

Albert Earl Howard with the Water Pollution Control in La. is an ardent hunter and fisherman. Keep up the good work, Albert. Polluted water kills a lot of fish and other seafood.

Al and Jean Bernhard and family really enjoyed their fish fry of bass and perch. They were given them by a friend. Better than going out in the hot sun to catch them.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Steele do a lot of fishing and crabbing. They enjoy fish fries and crab boils with their friends. They are good sports in general.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Truitt of Luling, La., are visiting at the home of Al Bernhard and family. They love fishing and shrimp. Jim is also an avid bowler. Be over to fish with you some day, Buddy.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Dudenheiser, Jr., and children caught 19 sheepshead weighing 5 to 7 pounds along the piling of the L&N R.R. Bridge last week using frozen shrimp. Ever try fiddlers for bait folks. Last longer and cost less.

Perre Quintini has been doing a lot of fly fishing while home on leave. He catches his share of fish, too.

Al Baudry and family of Jackson will be down on vacation soon. Soft crabs had better look out. The kids are pretty good at catching them.

The yard of Our Lady of the Gulf school will be a busy place next Saturday and Sunday while the Church Fair will be in progress. The fair is looked forward to each year by young and old alike.

Boys attending St. Stanislaus summer camp are having a ball participating in all kinds of sports. Swimming is the main attraction.

Bill Stewart, Jr., is doing his share of fishing. He likes all kinds of fishing and is learning to fly fish. Pretty good, too.

Julie Ann Baudry has been visiting her grandparents. Basketball is her favorite sport.

Bob Stewart's favorite sports are pool playing and shuffleboard. Hard to beat at both games. Too hot to fish he claims.

Frank Trapani and his buddies attended the fight in New Orleans last week. An ardent fight fan Frank never misses a chance to see a fight.

Softball is in full swing. Local teams are participating in tournaments and playing benefit games. It's a good sport if you like it.

Did you know that Elderberries are used for making elderberry jelly, tea and cough syrup. They grow wild and make pretty good wine.

Frog legs are really good eating when fried in deep, hot fat and dipped in corn-meal seasoned with salt and pepper. Now is the time to catch frogs.

Fishing is getting good out by the railroad bridge. Speckles, sheepshead, white trout and flounders are being caught. Live and dead shrimp are good baits. Fish mostly on the bottom for best results.

Ben Mutter loves to catch salt water fish and hard crabs. Been at it a long time he said. Will make that trip soon, Partner.

You can buy a weedless hook which makes hooking oyster shells and other objects less aggravating when fishing on the bottom. A wire weedguard does the trick.

Two other fishermen catching big sheepshead along the L&N Bridge were Roy Wilson and Pat Sullivan of Mount Olive and Jackson. They landed 12 sheepshead weighing up to 6 lbs. We had a big day, said Sullivan.

SPORTSMAN OF THE WEEK
One of our younger sports is Ronnie Rauxet. Ronnie only 13 years old, fishes, shoots doves, catches frogs and soft crabs like an old timer. He is busy now helping his dad train "Jet" a Labrador retriever.

They are found in water holes, lakes and bays. Catch by hand or hand grabber when using a headlight.

Fishing is getting good out by the railroad bridge. Speckles, sheepshead, white trout and flounders are being caught. Live and dead shrimp are good baits. Fish mostly on the bottom for best results.

Pig Raising Provides A Liberal Education

Raising pigs provides a liberal education to 4-H boys and girls and may produce a profit, as well. Proof of this is found in the 4-H Swine project records compiled last year by more than 100,000 young farmers.

They learn about the economics of raising and selling livestock; the need for proper feeding and sanitation; the importance of breed and grade. They produce to meet consumer demand and promote the nutritional value of pork as a high source of vitamin B. And last but not least, 4-H'ers acquire skills and patience needed to prepare the animal for the show ring. They also learn how to judge the live animal and the meat carcass, too.

Sounds like a lot for youngsters to master, but they do. And some do a little better than others, according to annual awards provided by the national 4-H Swine program sponsor, Moorman Mfg. Co. of Quincy, Illinois.

Last year 6,100 completed outstanding swine projects which merited awards ranging from the county swine medal (awarded to the top four members in a county) to $600 scholarships.

The highest award of a $600 scholarship went to the six national champions chosen from among 43 state winners. Two of them were from the corn belt states of Illinois and Indiana. The others represented Maryland, Mississippi, New Mexico and Oklahoma.

State awards were expense-paid trips to Chicago as delegates to National 4-H Congress.

The 1969 crop of award winners will probably increase, especially at the county level, surmises a 4-H spokesman,

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Our Lady of the Gulf Church Fair will be held June 28 and 29, starting at 5 p.m., each day on O.L.G. School grounds.

Volunteer workers are still needed and anyone who can help is asked to leave their name at the Rectory this week or report to the fair office in the teachers lounge the evenings of the fair.

since enrollment in the 4-H Swine program is expected to surpass the 107,440 members who participated last year.

Parents who would like to volunteer as leaders for this program, or who would like to have their youngsters start a swine project can get information from the County Extension office.

The age requirement for 4-H membership generally is between 9 and 19 years. State and national award candidates, however, must be over 14 years of age, and a 4-H member for at least three years, reports the Cooperative Extension Service.

Highways, superhighways, turnpikes, freeways, expressways—they crisscross America, leading in every imaginable direction. And, they get you there so fast, you are past the right exit before you know it. We live in such a speed-oriented world that, when we are not working, we feel we must "hurry up and relax." At times we even feel guilty when we are not busy about something.

We don't really like our foolish pace. We speak longingly of peace of mind and quietude, and we take tranquilizers by the ton. We search frantically . . . on vacations, on "lost weekends," on "fun activities" . . . but tranquility is hard to find.

Perhaps we are seeking too hard. Perhaps tranquility is not to be sought. Rather, isn't it what happens when you are at peace with yourself, no matter the circumstances?

You can be at peace with yourself only when you are at peace with God. He is the very center of your being, and His peace is freely given when you accept it.

Accept this great gift of God in the very best place of all—His Church.

LET THE WORDS OF MY MOUTH BE ACCEPTABLE. MAKE THEM FEW

JO HUNTER and four children are spending the summer months in their Bay home and Wally has joined the ranks of the weekly commuters.

A VERY SPECIAL happy birthday wish goes to Milton Cornier, who cut his cake on Monday, June 16.

JOE BISHOP is getting to be quite an experienced airplane pilot. He took his son Greg up for his first flight last week. They were accompanied by Joe's instructor Wylie Heath, of course.

CLARA (MRS. GEORGE) Seuzennas appears to have survived daughter Dennis' elaborate June 14th wedding, as she showed up at the Friday night benefit at St. Clare's Parish Hall with the Ernest Miers, appearing much too cool and collected to have been such a recent mother of the bride.

DARA AND DAVID Ohlmeier are jubilant over the fact that they are to become parents for the first time come February.

LILA DE BLANC, Jimmy's most attractive mother, spent the weekend at the De Blanc's Gulf Gardens home. She helped supervise the activities of the younger members of the family allowing Bessie and Jimmy to enjoy a worry free couple of days in Panama City, Fla.

ROSE (MRS. HAMILTON) Guenard began taking organ instructions from her husband as therapy for strengthening her wrists which were both broken around the first of the year, but has proven such an apt pupil that friends are amazed at her prowess.

A GET WELL in a hurry wish goes to Diamond Blaise who is a patient in Gulfport Memorial Hospital under treatment for serious injuries sustained when he fell from a ladder while working at his home.

MR. AND MRS. LAMAROTIS and their daughter Mildred (Mrs. C.W.) Fountain have returned from Orlando, Fla. where they visited Mr. Lamar's sister Ethel Lawrence, who is recuperating from a critical illness, and her husband W. H. Lawrence.

A FORMER RESIDENT of both Waveland and Bay St. Louis, Mrs. Calvin Phelps of Baton Rouge, La. is the guest of her sister Mrs. A. W. Moore.

SOME TO HEAR that Mr. William Kellogg became suddenly ill and was admitted to a hospital while visiting in St. Louis, Mo.

JEANETTE (Mrs. Wallace) Bontemps is also in line for a get well wish as she has been a patient in Hancock General Hospital.

SUE BREATH is driving around in a very sporty new automobile.

VIRGINIA AND BILL Watts spent several days in Louisville, Ky. where they attended a large convention of electric company officials.

MIKE PETERSON has been proudly passing out blue wrapped cigars since the arrival of his first son, Wally. Mary presented him with his third child, Michael James, II, on Wednesday, June 11. He was born at Hancock General Hospital weighing seven pounds, 13 and one-half ounces.

REV. CHARLES JOHNSON and family met daughter Betty at New Orleans International Airport last week when she returned home from her first year at college in Boston, Mass.

KATHLEEN A ND PAUL Greenaway of Miami, Fla. are guests of Kathleen's brother, Rev. Paul Maloney, pastor of St. Clare's Catholic Church in Waveland.

MR. WARREN DUTHU is the sportiest man about town these days boasting six brand new walking short outfits which he received as Father's Day gifts. Daughter Dorothy Weathers was the only one who didn't contribute to his sartorial elegance-- she presented him with a very fancy new car washing and waxing gadget.

WAVELAND is to have its own library at last. The town will install air conditioning in the Bookmobile when it's replaced by a newer model and it will be manned by Mildred (Sis) Means each Monday and Friday afternoon. The facility will be permanently located on the Bourgeois Street side of the town hall.

HAZEL (MRS. CLAUDE) Tracey is spending a week visiting members of her family in Montgomery, Ala.

AFTER A FIVE hour delay caused by mechanical difficulties, one of our most traveled friends, Hazel (Mrs. Charles) Dahlin, arrived via plane in Albuquerque, N. M. She saw a number of old friends while attending a Kappa convention in that interesting city.

SPEAKING OF FLYING, Jennie (Mrs. Frank) La Rosa called after we'd written our account of her first plane trip to let us know that it will by no means be her last. Just because she happened to run into a very rare bit of rough air, she's convinced that making like a bird is the only way to travel and would hop another plane tomorrow if given the opportunity.

CHRISTY LENNOX, nee Torgersen, is picking up a fat pay check each week as Joanne Woodward's stunt double in a movie now being filmed in the Crescent City. She is, part-owner of an exclusive specialty fashion shop in the Vieux Carre and the film bit is only a sideline. We hate to disillusion fans of the picture's leading man, Paul Newman, but feel compelled to pass on Christy's report to her parents, George and Bob, that the handsome hunk of virility is in reality less than five and one-half feet tall!

CORRECTION - One of last week's animal notes erroneously stated that Miss Corinne Nelson had puppies to give away. Miss Nelson has only one dog, a small fox terrier, which never leaves her fenced yard, and she hasn't the slightest intention of parting with him. As there has been illness in the Nelson household, unnecessary phone calls are quite an inconvenience, and we regret that we were misinformed. In the future, we will only list animals to be given away after receiving calls from actual owners.

ANOTHER HOPE You're feeling better greeting is on the way to Lolly (Mrs. Clifford) Backlund. Lolly is going through a bunch of tests at Hancock General Hospital.

FISHING NEWS - After several years of vainly trying to catch her first red fish the above mentioned Hazel finally caught two in one day last week.

All we ask them to remember is that their fluffy puppy or cuddly kitten will grow and grow and grow, becoming in many cases much too large for city yards. If so, please don't just leave the animal to fend for itself--either try to find it a good home or take it to the nearest S.P.C.A. shelter--the after Labor Day army of deserted pets is a truly tragic annual occurrence.

COMPLAINT DEPT. - We've been asked to repeat our remarks about the deplorable condition of the beach. The manager of one of our larger camps lost two large groups recently due to the fact that directors feared too many injuries would result from broken bottles, rusty cans, etc. Picnickers are largely responsible for these hazards, but just as dangerous are large cans with jagged edges which were used in construction of the brand new sidewalk along the beach front. We realize that constant upkeep is costly, but unless our waterfront is attractive, visitors will naturally seek more appealing surroundings.

SIGHTS AND SOUNDS A-LONG THE WAY - Silvery cascades of water sprinkling lawns all over town on what seems to be a 24 hour basis. Sturdy little petunia plants still producing brilliant trumpet shaped blossoms despite the lengthily drought, a couple of seedling sparrows getting seedling

Kin Resident's Son Receives Award

Army Major Charles M. Banister, son of Mrs. Hazel B. Banister, Kin, Miss., received the Legion of Merit, recently while serving with Headquarters Company American, Division near Chu Lai, Vietnam.

Major Banister earned the award for exceptionally meritorious conduct in the performance of outstanding service as an organization and doctrine officer in the division. The Legion of Merit is the second highest non-combat award for achievement.

His wife, Anna, lives at 1508 E. Crescent St., Anchorage, Alaska.
